4.6 Bylaw Reform Proposal

Elimination of transitory provisions

Justification

It is proposed that the transitional provisions that are no longer applicable be eliminated.

Original version

Article 405. Only for the effects of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in 2019, Board members shall be divided into three (3) classes: (i) Non-independent members; Board members who do not fulfill the independence criteria defined by law, the corporate bylaws and other corporate documents; (ii) independent members; Board members who fulfill the requirements established by law, in the Corporate bylaws and other corporate documents to be considered independent; (iii) independent member appointed according to the provisions of Sections 5.04 and 5.05 of the Shareholder Agreement, for as long as it remains in effect.

For the effects of this transitory article, the non-independent members shall be elected for a two (2) year term from the date of their appointment. The independent members shall be elected for a term of three (3) years from the date of their appointment, and the independent member appointed according to the provisions of Sections 5.04 and 5.05 of the Shareholder Agreement shall be elected for a term of one (1) year from the date of his/her appointment.

The term referred to above shall only begin to count from the date of the Ordinary General Meeting of shareholders in 2019, in future general meeting of shareholders held after March 2019, during which Board members are elected, the directors shall be appointed in order to succeed those whose two year terms are set to expire, as indicated earlier.

The above does not rule out the possibility of replacing one or several of all Board members, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of Article 420 of the Commercial Code.
